ABOUT US: PHG LAW

Integrating Indonesian Insight with Global Legal Excellence

Who We Are

PHG Law is a dynamic, full-service law firm headquartered in Indonesia, combining deep local market expertise with a forward-thinking approach to legal innovation. For over 25 years, our partners have advised domestic and international businesses on navigating Indonesia's evolving regulatory landscape while addressing cross-border legal challenges with precision and pragmatism.

Our Commitment to Clients

We prioritize long-term partnerships over transactional engagements. By understanding your industry, commercial objectives, and risk appetite, we deliver tailored solutions that not only resolve immediate legal issues but also position your business for sustainable growth. Our clients—ranging from startups to multinational corporations—rely on us as trusted advisors who anticipate complexities, mitigate disputes, and seize opportunities in an increasingly interconnected world.

What Sets Us Apart

Sector-Focused Expertise

Our practice is built on industry-specific knowledge, enabling us to address the unique legal demands of sectors such as energy, technology, financial services, and natural resources.

Full-Service Agility

From high-stakes litigation to transformative M&A transactions, our multidisciplinary team offers end-to-end legal support, ensuring seamless coordination across practice areas.

Global Perspective, Local Mastery

While deeply rooted in Indonesian law, our attorneys are adept at aligning local compliance with international standards, particularly in areas like data privacy, cross-border disputes, and capital markets.

Our Approach

Collaboration lies at the heart of our service. We work alongside your leadership and in-house teams to align legal strategies with business priorities, ensuring transparency and efficiency at every stage. By leveraging technology and process-driven methodologies, we streamline outcomes without compromising on the rigor expected of a top-tier firm.

A Firm Built for the Future

As Indonesia's economy continues to integrate with global markets, PHG Law remains committed to advancing legal excellence that bridges local nuance with international best practices. Whether defending your interests in court or structuring groundbreaking deals, we measure our success by yours.

WHY US

What makes PHG Law Different?

Legal solution - Beyond expectation

UNPRECEDENTED FLEXIBILITY

Redefining Client Service in a Dynamic Legal Landscape

Traditional law firms often prioritize scale over adaptability, leaving clients navigating rigid hierarchies and inefficiencies. At PHG Law, we reject this model. Our founding principle—crafted by partners with decades of experience in conventional firms—is simple: legal counsel should align with your pace, not institutional inertia. Unburdened by legacy structures, we combine institutional-grade expertise with the responsiveness of a nimble practice, ensuring your priorities never compete with bureaucratic overhead.

CLIENT-CENTRIC AGILITY

Boutique Precision, Enterprise-Grade Expertise

In an era where complexity demands focus, our compact structure allows us to dedicate unparalleled attention to your objectives. We eschew the “one-size-fits-all” approach of larger firms, instead fostering deep, collaborative partnerships grounded in proactive communication and multidisciplinary collaboration. By remaining intentionally lean, we ensure that every matter receives strategic oversight from senior attorneys, safeguarding both quality and continuity. Your growth fuels ours. As your business evolves, so does our advisory—seamlessly scaling to meet new challenges while maintaining the responsiveness and bespoke service that define our ethos.

COST PREDICTABILITY

Value-Driven Solutions, Transparent Execution

In a profession often criticized for opacity, we champion financial clarity as a cornerstone of trust. Our fee structures prioritize alignment with your outcomes, not billable-hour quotas. Leveraging process efficiencies and technology, we deliver commercially astute counsel that balances international best practices with market-conscious pragmatism. We provide you with regular updates and scenario planning to mitigate budgetary uncertainty.

PRACTICE AREA

Multidisciplinary Mastery for Modern Business Challenges

At PHG Law, we transcend conventional legal silos by uniting cross-disciplinary expertise under a single strategic umbrella. Our attorneys—specialists in corporate, regulatory, transactional, and dispute resolution matters—collaborate seamlessly to deliver holistic solutions that address not only your immediate needs but also anticipate emerging risks and opportunities.

Corporate and Commercial Law

PHG Law provides end-to-end legal solutions for domestic and international businesses seeking to establish, scale, or optimize operations in Indonesia. Our multidisciplinary team advises clients across the entire corporate lifecycle—from entity formation, licensing, and investment structuring to shareholder governance, mergers and acquisitions, and regulatory compliance. We specialize in designing frameworks that balance operational agility with adherence to Indonesia’s multilayered regulatory environment, ensuring seamless market entry and sustainable growth.

Capital Markets

PHG Law serves as a trusted advisor to issuers, underwriters, and institutional investors navigating Indonesia’s dynamic capital markets. Our licensed capital market attorneys provide strategic counsel on IPOs, bond issuances, and regulatory compliance, ensuring transparency and investor confidence.

Banking and Financial Services

In an era of fintech disruption and heightened oversight, PHG Law delivers forward-thinking counsel to banks, insurers, asset managers, and non-bank financial institutions. Our team combines technical mastery of BI (Bank Indonesia) and OJK regulations with a pragmatic understanding of operational realities.

Merger & Acquisition

PHG Law provides comprehensive guidance on mergers, acquisitions, and corporate restructuring in Indonesia, catering to investors, sellers, arrangers, and target companies. The firm specializes in cross-border transactions, collaborating with leading international law firms across Asia-Pacific to address complex regulatory and commercial challenges. Recent work includes advising on the establishment of a sub-holding structure for a prominent State-Owned Enterprise (SoE), a milestone transaction that involved aligning Indonesian corporate governance standards with global best practices. The team has executed deals in sectors such as financial services, digital technology, plantations, and natural resources, with a focus on delivering tailored solutions for joint ventures, share acquisitions, and sector consolidations. Their expertise extends to navigating Indonesia's evolving foreign ownership regulations, ensuring clients achieve strategic objectives while mitigating risks.

Intellectual Property

PHG Law's Intellectual Property practice empowers businesses to safeguard and leverage their intangible assets through strategic registrations, enforcement, and commercialization. The team, which includes a licensed IP consultant accredited by Indonesia's IP Directorate, advises on patent filings, trademark disputes, and copyright infringement matters. The firm also integrates IP due diligence into M&A transactions, ensuring clients in sectors like pharmaceuticals and technology retain value from intellectual assets post-acquisition. Their proactive approach addresses counterfeiting risks and aligns IP strategies with long-term business goals.

Financial Services & Technology

With deep roots in Indonesia's fintech regulatory landscape, PHG Law's partners have actively contributed to shaping policies governing payment systems, digital lending, and e-commerce. The firm is a trusted advisor to innovators in disruptive industries, including ride-hailing platforms, blockchain startups, and digital payment providers. Recently, the team represented a Southeast Asian fintech unicorn in securing a $150 million Series C funding round, structuring compliance frameworks for cross-border investments. They also guided a multinational e-commerce giant through Indonesia's market-entry regulations, addressing data localization and consumer protection mandates. By combining technical knowledge of financial regulations with creative problem-solving, PHG Law enables clients to capitalize on opportunities in Indonesia's rapidly digitizing economy.

Privacy and Data Protection

Indonesia's enactment of the Personal Data Protection Law (PDPL) has introduced stringent compliance requirements for businesses, with administrative fines of up to 2% of annual revenue and criminal penalties for violations. PHG Law is at the forefront of guiding multinational corporations, tech startups, and financial institutions through this evolving landscape, particularly as regulators test enforcement boundaries. Our team, which includes a former advisor to the PDPL drafting committee, has designed compliance frameworks for clients such as a leading Indonesian e-commerce platform handling 10 million user profiles and a global fintech firm managing cross-border data transfers across ASEAN. We provide end-to-end support, from drafting multilingual privacy policies and negotiating data-sharing agreements with overseas partners to managing breach responses and liaising with Indonesia's Data Protection Authority during investigations. Recently, we successfully defended a retail client against a high-profile data subject complaint, avoiding fines through proactive remediation and demonstrating alignment with the PDPL's "accountability principle."

Infrastructure and Project Finance

Our team supports clients through all phases, from bid preparation and RFP analysis to structuring PPP agreements and securing financing from multilateral institutions. Our sector expertise spans airports, toll roads, renewable energy, and digital infrastructure, with a focus on balancing commercial viability with compliance under Indonesia's Negative Investment List and Public-Private Partnership laws.

Franchise and Trade

PHG Law is a recognized authority in franchise law, having structured and negotiated franchise networks for a top-tier fast-food chain, Indonesia's largest restaurant group. Beyond franchising, the team advises importers and exporters on trade compliance, customs regulations, and anti-dumping investigations, ensuring seamless cross-border operations. Their work for a retail client in resolving a regional distribution conflict without litigation underscores their ability to balance legal rigor with commercial pragmatism.

Dispute Resolution and Litigation

PHG Law's dispute resolution team is renowned for resolving high-stakes, cross-border conflicts across industries, leveraging a strategic blend of litigation, arbitration, and mediation. We handle disputes involving intellectual property, insolvency, and regulatory enforcement. Our partners are adept at navigating Indonesia's evolving judicial reforms while aligning outcomes with clients' commercial imperatives.

Natural Resources and Energy

We deliver a complete range of investment in natural resources and energy sectors. We assist and represent a diverse range of clients, including mining companies, independent contractors, oil and gas companies, operators, and midstream and downstream energy businesses. Our experience covers both traditional energy (i.e., electricity, gas and water) and renewable energy sources (i.e., solar and biofuel).

Land and Real-Estate Transactions

Our lawyers have a track record of advising and assisting clients where lands and real estate are at the center of the transactions. We assist them to close the deal during the entire transaction lifecycle from the land acquisition, early development of the project (land clearing and relocation) and construction of the projects. We also advise the clients regarding the construction licenses across Indonesia, which nowadays may differ in each local region. Wherever the projects, our land and real-estate team are ready to support.

Criminal Enforcement

Our litigation team represents individuals and companies in criminal litigation for both (alleged) offenders and victims of criminal acts. We help clients in all stages of the case starting from the investigations through the proceeding in the Indonesian Court. From suspected forgery, bribery and corruption, violation of professional secrecy, money laundering, fraud and cybercrime, our broadly-based criminal exposure are in place to provide our clients with an effective resolution during the investigation and criminal proceedings.

Public and Administrative Law

PHG Law is a trusted advisor to government entities, corporations, and civil society on high-stakes constitutional and administrative challenges. We defend clients in state administrative disputes, including permit revocations and procurement challenges, with a high success rate in securing favorable rulings.

Debt Restructuring, Bankruptcy and Insolvency

Our litigators are master of the Bankruptcy law and are known for their broad experience in handling debt restructuring and insolvency matters involving multiple creditors. We represent multinational companies (creditors and debtors) with debt restructuring, non-performing loans, bankruptcy, insolvencies and liquidations from both structuring and in court proceedings perspective. The team's deep ties to Indonesia's Commercial Court streamline proceedings, while our proprietary risk modeling tools anticipate creditor challenges pre-filing. We also defend directors against wrongful trading claims, recently absolving a board of liability in a high-profile tourism sector insolvency.

Employment and Industrial Relation Disputes

PHG Law's employment practice combines technical mastery of Indonesia's 2021 Omnibus Law reforms with crisis-tested dispute resolution. We also advise businesses on employment and HR issues, including the employment aspects of corporate restructuring (layoff), mergers and acquisitions. Based on our partners' long-standing practice, we have built a strong relationship with employment authorities, in the regions to the ministry level. We also have broad experience in the negotiation with labour union and represent employers in court proceedings before the labour courts.

OUR SERVICES

Client-Centric Engagement Models

At PHG Law, we design flexible, tailored engagement frameworks that align with your business's strategic priorities, whether you're navigating rapid growth, regulatory shifts, or cross-border complexities. Our approach combines boutique-style agility with institutional rigor, ensuring seamless integration into your operations while safeguarding budget predictability.

Strategic Retainer Partnerships

Become a priority client with our retainer model, where we function as an extension of your in-house team. Reserved exclusively for long-term partners, this option guarantees proactive legal oversight—from routine compliance audits to crisis readiness—with dedicated hours tailored to your risk profile. Retainer clients benefit from fixed-fee predictability, quarterly strategy reviews, and priority scheduling for urgent matters, whether negotiating with Indonesian authorities or coordinating cross-jurisdictional disputes.

Fixed-Scope Excellence

For defined projects like M&A due diligence, IPO preparations, or regulatory submissions, our lump-sum model delivers end-to-end accountability. We pioneered fixed-fee structuring for Indonesia's first green bond issuance, aligning costs with milestone deliverables while absorbing unforeseen regulatory revisions. This model is ideal for multinationals expanding into Indonesia's emerging sectors, where compliance timelines and documentation volumes demand airtight cost control.

Flexible Hourly Solutions

When unpredictability reigns—such as litigation escalations or unplanned regulatory inquiries—our hourly model provides surgical precision. Leverage our tiered rate structure, where senior partners handle high-stakes negotiations while associates manage document-intensive tasks.

PARTNER

Lindu Dwi Purnomo
Partner

lindu@phglaw.co.id

Bachelor of Law at the University of North Sumatra – 1990
Registered member of the Indonesian Bar Association (PERADI)

Lindu is a distinguished senior partner specializing in high-stakes civil, commercial, corporate, and anti-trust litigation, with a focus on cross-border disputes and complex regulatory matters.

With over 25 years of experience advising multinational corporations, financial institutions, and high-net-worth individuals, he combines deep technical expertise with a strategic, business-oriented mindset to resolve contentious issues efficiently and protect client interests in fast-moving global markets. Renowned for his ability to navigate intricate legal landscapes, Lindu's practice spans banking and finance disputes, antitrust investigations, IT/media sector conflicts, capital market litigation, and large-scale debt restructuring. His work frequently involves multijurisdictional challenges, including fraud, corruption, and white-collar crime allegations, where he balances rigorous legal advocacy with sensitivity to reputational risks and international compliance standards.

Clients value his ability to dissect complex disputes swiftly, delivering clear, actionable advice that aligns with commercial objectives. His collaborative approach—often coordinating with forensic accountants, industry specialists, and local counsel—ensures seamless execution of litigation strategies, even in politically sensitive environments. This pragmatic methodology has earned him repeat mandates from leading corporations in the banking, technology, and real estate sectors, particularly in matters involving regulatory scrutiny, intellectual property conflicts, and cross-border enforcement.

Committed to advancing client success beyond the courtroom, Lindu advises boards and executives on preemptive risk management, compliance frameworks, and crisis response protocols. His dual focus on litigation excellence and long-term strategic counsel ensures clients emerge stronger from disputes, turning legal challenges into opportunities for operational refinement and growth.

Lindu is admitted to practice in Indonesia and works fluently in English and Bahasa.

Eresendi Winaharta
Partner

eresendi@phglaw.co.id

Bachelor of Law at the University of Gajah Mada – 1995
Registered member of the Indonesian Bar Association (PERADI)

Eresendi is a seasoned litigation and arbitration partner recognized for resolving high-stakes disputes across commercial, criminal, state administrative, and cross-border matters.

With a practice spanning complex courtroom trials, international arbitration tribunals, and mediation-driven settlements, he advises multinational corporations, Indonesian conglomerates, and global institutions on disputes where legal, regulatory, and reputational risks converge. His dual expertise in contentious proceedings and the operational realities of highly regulated industries—forged through years of in-house counsel roles in coal mining—enables him to craft solutions that balance legal rigor with commercial pragmatism.

Eresendi's practice is anchored in commercial litigation, where he routinely handles breach of contract claims, shareholder disputes, and enforcement actions involving multinational entities. He spearheads strategic arbitration cases, particularly in sectors such as energy, infrastructure, and natural resources. His deep familiarity with state administrative law further equips him to navigate disputes involving government permits, regulatory challenges, and public-private partnerships, often in politically sensitive environments.

Clients value Eresendi's ability to demystify legally ambiguous scenarios, a skill honed during his tenure as legal head of a major coal mining company. There, he resolved recurring disputes over extraction licenses, environmental compliance, and supply chain contracts, giving him firsthand insight into the intersection of operational risk and dispute resolution. This background informs his proactive approach to advising clients on preventive measures, including drafting dispute-ready contracts and designing internal compliance protocols to mitigate litigation exposure.

Fluent in English and Bahasa Indonesia, he bridges cultural and procedural gaps in cross-border cases, often coordinating with technical experts and local counsel to align strategies with regional legal nuances.

Eresendi's practice is defined by a commitment to efficiency without compromise. Whether steering bet-the-company trials or designing bespoke ADR frameworks, he prioritizes outcomes that safeguard clients' immediate interests while reinforcing their long-term strategic goals. Eresendi is admitted to practice in Indonesia.
